Children are a blessing. But for some reason God doesn't always bless everyone with children. Some hope and pray for a family, and God graciously grants their request, sometimes quite miraculously, as in the case of Sarah; others just as fervent in their petitions before God's throne are met by deafening silence.

I. The Religious Dimension and Christological Specificity of Miracles. Just as the notion of mystery has religion as a natural and primary backdrop, so too does that of "miracle" (from Lat. miror, to be amazed at), though both terms are subject to a variety of understandings and lexical uses. In fact, the varied use of the two terms has inevitably led to a broadening of their meanings, as ...
