Structural functionalism, or simply functionalism, is "a framework for building theory that sees society as a complex system whose parts work together to promote solidarity and stability".. This approach looks at society through a macro-level orientation, which is a broad focus on the social structures that shape society as a whole, and believes that society has evolved like organisms.

4. Proposed assessment framework for climate-proof NBS. Building upon the review in Section 3, we propose a framework for an ex-ante assessment of the direct benefits/costs and co-benefits/costs of NBS. The framework makes it possible to assess NBS suitability across most societal challenges identified in the EU Research and Innovation (R&I) agenda on the environment ().
