Find out what being an informal leader involves. An informal leader is someone within an organization or work unit who, by virtue of how he or she is perceived by his peers (or others in the organization) is seen as worthy of paying attention to, or following.

What Is An Informal Leader? - leadertoday.org

Sometimes people in leadership roles fall into a trap of wanting to be liked, and don't hold people below them accountable for their actions and the results they achieve (or fail to achieve). Or, a busy leader may feel that holding people accountable is time consuming and tend to procrastinate, or avoid accountability, particularly if the leader is prone to avoiding confrontation.
